

BCLA Autumn Postgraduate Reception 2014 'Beyond Europe'

28 October 2014, Tuesday, 5:30 pm – 7:30 pm
Darwin Building, Room B15
University College London

Programme

Welcome and introduction by

Professor Elinor Shaffer, FBA, Founding Member of the BCLA Executive Committee, Clare Hall, University of Cambridge and School of Advanced Study, University of London

Keynote lecture: 'Re-thinking Genre in an Age of World Literature' by

Dr Florian Mussgnung, Reader in Italian and Comparative Literature, University College London

'From London to Taipei: Writing the Past in Youyuan jingmeng (Wandering in the Garden, Waking from a Dream) and Mrs. Dalloway' by

Shao-Hua Wang, Medieval and Modern Languages, University of Oxford

'Aestheticism: An Attempt at a Cosmopolitan Literature?' by

Claire Bitoun, Medieval and Modern Languages, University of Oxford

'Beyond Borders: A Hermeneutic Perspective on the Cross-cultural Interpretation of Texts' by

Joanna Wilson, School of English, University of Leicester

The talks will be followed with a reception with wine, juice and snacks, and an opportunity for informal discussion.

Please do join us! All are welcome and admission is free of charge.

Hosted by the Faculty of Arts and Humanities, University College London

Organised by the British Comparative Literature Association Postgraduate Representatives
Niall Sreenan (UCL, London), Katarzyna Szymanska (Oxford), N. Kivilcim Yavuz (Leeds)

Website: www.bcla.org | E-mail: bclapgraduate@gmail.com

Facebook: www.facebook.com/BCLAUK | Twitter: @BCLApstgrad